OPERATORS ATTEMPTING TO SWINDLE A COUNTRYMAN. entieman, residing in Massachusetts, who has been sending some days in the city, chanced to be at the foot of Canal street, North river. While watching the Albany boat, which was soon to leave on her upward trip, Mr. countryman. Williams was very entertaining in his up on the boat, and that he had purchased three thousand dollars worth of goods that day. Williams then invited Mr. Beall to take a walk, little thinking that his movements were watched by an officer; but in was the case they started off, and after passing through several streets brought up in Lispens. Since, near Broadway, when a street, near Broadway, when a street, near Broadway, when a street, near Broadway. When a based will be a street, near Broadway, when a street was bought, to which he latter gave an affirmal over answer, and at the same time pulled from his procket what purported to be a one hundred dollar bill, but which was one of the worthless 'CL'y Trust and Banking Company's notes, by means of which so many countrymen have been swindled in years past. Hebinson said he was unable to change the bill, and of rourse Mr. Beall was appealed to hange the bill, and of rourse Mr. Beall was appealed to in the emergency, but as he was about to pass $100 in good money to the swindlers detective Field, of the Fifth precinct, dashed up bothing the party and arrested Williams and Robinson, just in time to prevent the consummation of the swindle. On searching the prisoners at the station house several other bogus bills and what purported to be a cheek for $500, on the First National Bank of this city, and which was signed J. W. Hinshor & Co., and endorsed Thomas Davison. This worthless check was one of those "collateral security" specimens used by confidence operators in swindling their victims. Williams and Robinson, who are well known offenders, were taken before Justice Hogan and committee for examination. Previous to his coming to this city, Mr. Beall, who is about sixty years of age, had never been out of his native State (Massachusetts). dollars worth of goods that day. Williams then invited

Samuel Feeney, a man nearly fifty years of ago, and seorge Valentine, a youth of nineteen years, were detected in the act of removing a case of hoop skirts, valued at four hundred dollars, from in front of the valued at four hundred dollars, from in front of the store No. 51 Walker street, of which Austin Kelley is one of the proprietors. Mr. Kelley caused the arrest of the parties by officer Woolsey, of the Broadway Squad, whereupon Feeney produced what purported to be an order, signed by J. M. Joyce, requesting him (Feeney) to remove the case of skirts to No. 28 Ludlow street. Supposing the order to be genuine Feeney was proceeding to cart away the goods when he was interrupted and taken in charge, together with Valentine, who wolunteered to assist him in loading the case on a cart. The prisoners were taken before Justice Hogan and committed for examination. The auther of the bogus order is unknown, but the police are searching for him.

ATTEMPT TO ROB A BONDED WARRHOUSE. Water street, containing a large amount o goods, was closed for the night, a man giving his name as Bernard Riley slipped inside and secreted himself behind some tea chests, with the alleged intent to steal during the night. Fortunately Riley was discovered and taken in charge by officer Cavanagh, of the Fourth precinct. Justice Hogan yesterday committed Riley to the Tombs for trial.

ANOTHER KEROBENE CASUALTY .-- At half-past three c'clock on last Saturday afternoon while Mrs. Elizabeth Earley, residing at No. 140 Gold street, was lighting a eighth precinct, was patrolling his post he had occasion to arrest a man for intoxication. When about taking his prisoner to the station house he was assaulted by two men, named Barney Parrell and John Roach, who beat the officer in a most frightful manner and rescued his prisoner. Sergeant McKellar and a squad of men came to the rescue and arrested the culprits. The wounded officer was placed under the care of Dr. Buell.
